

Lecturer - Rt Revd Dr. Christopher Herbert

2 artists both longing for Provençal sunshine. This study morning looks at Van Gogh's time in Arles where he explored colour and landscape in ways which have shifted everyone's perceptions and how less well known artist Raoul Dufy's life in Nice saw his unique joie-de-vivre shine through his creations.

Study Morning: 26th February 2019

Venue: Barley Room, Maltings

Time: 10.30am to 13.00pm

Tickets: £20.00 (in advance only)
